

GAMÉ

GAMAY SAINT-ROMAIN

Côte Roannaise is one of France's most underrated appellations. Technically it's part of the Loire, but geographically it's closer to Burgundy and Beaujolais, both in spirit and terroir. Well drained granitic soils give spicy and tense feel to the raspberry and wild strawberries meet notes of aspirin, ginger, and a citric edge (it's kinda reads as a dark rosé). Aperitif style or duck breast on a Wednesday. Certified Organic and Biodynamic.

FUSO...characterful daily drinkers from our producer friends in France and Italy!

FUSO
PORTOVINO

